

Publication: Greater Kashmir

Date: April 27, 2014

Media XI wins by 6 wkts to lift Aircel trophy

FAHIM TAK GETS BEST BATSMAN TROPHY; ROHIT BEST BOWLER, LEKH RAJ BEST FIELDER

Media XI in jubilant mood after winning the friendly tie against Aircel at Jammu on Sunday.

Jammu, April 27: Outplaying Aircel XI by six wickets, the Media XI today lifted the title trophy in a friendly Twenty20 cricket match, organised by the telecom company here.

Earlier, batting first, Aircel

XI set a target of 115 runs for eight wickets with Manmeet and Anuj being top scorers adding 25 and 27 runs respectively. From Media XI, Rohit emerged as most successful bowler with three for 19 runs in four overs. Sunil, Syed and Ashu shared apiece each.

In reply, led by Mir Imran of Greater Kashmir, the Media XI achieved the target making 115 runs for four wickets. Fahim Tak remained top scorer with 21 runs while Sohan and Lekhraj contributed 11 and 13 runs respectively. Dilip, Bindu and Anuj Gupta took one wicket each.

For his match winning innings, Rohit was adjudged man of the match. Rohit also named best bowler while best batsman trophy went to Fahim Tak. Lekh Raj declared best fielder.

This friendly tie was part of the two-day 'Aircel Premier League', organised by the telecom company for its trade partners. A large number of Aircel Preferred Partners (APPs) and their families were invited to be a part of the gala event by Aircel. Matches played between employees comprised of four teams - Daredevils, Extreme, Spartans and Challengers.

Speaking on the occasion, Circle Operations Head, J&K, Aircel, Sundeep Talwar, said "We truly cherish the relationship with our trade partners and are delighted to organize this cricket tournament with our trade partners and media friends. It is a great platform to engage and strengthen relationships and since cricket is the flavour of the season, we are extremely delighted to organize Aircel Premier League successfully".

Earlier, the Aircel Trade Partners (ATP) match was won by New Jammu Tigers. Pawan Gupta from Provisional Shoppee said, "We are extremely honoured and delighted to be a part of this great Aircel family which supports us in all our endeavours".