A good first serve

You know what they say – a good serve is a game half-won. And that was exactly the mood at a recent event by Aircel to mark the start of the tennis season in the city. Vijay Amritraj kept the crowd in splits with his cheeky humour and witty repertoire while Karthi Chidambaram was seen chatting with the other guests. Anu and Minnie Menon spent the evening amidst animated conversations and boisterous laughter as many familiar faces poured in at the do, and as the night stretched on. Also spotted at the event were Shyam Ganesh, Prabhu Lakshman and AK Tareen.
