

Publication: The Free Press Journal

Date: May 7, 2014

Aircel trade partners meet 'Chennai Super Kings' players

As part of its unwavering commitment to its trade partners, Aircel, one of the leading innovative mobile service providers in India, organized a 'Meet and Greet' with players of Chennai Super Kings (CSK) in Delhi. M.S. Dhoni, R. Ashwin, Ravindra Jadeja, Brendon McCullum and Mohit Sharma were the key CSK players who were part of the 'Meet and Greet' with the Aircel trade community held at the Kamal Mahal Hall, ITC, Maurya. Through the Aircel High Flyer Contest, which required achieving maximum number of activations in a given period of time, top performing Aircel trade partners from Delhi, got a once in lifetime opportunity to meet and greet their favourite cricketing stars. Other top performing Aircel trade partners from Himachal Pradesh, Punjab, Rajasthan and Maharashtra, also got to meet the players of one of the most prolific teams in IPL. Anil Gupta, Regional Manager, North, Aircel, said, "At Aircel, we truly cherish the relationship we share with our valuable trade partners and are only happy to create innovative platforms such as the 'Meet and Greet' where our partners get to engage with their favourite stars. The 'Meet and Greet' with CSK players is an opportunity to acknowledge and express gratitude towards our partners for their continuous support and efforts in making Aircel a leading and successful brand in Delhi!"